AND
BY-LAWS

OF

THE AMERICAN LEGION, DEPARTMENT OF COLORADO,

LOVELAND POST 2000

REVISED: April 13, 2020

Constitution

PREAMBLE

For God and country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:
To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America;
To maintain law and order;
To foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism;
To preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in all wars;
To inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation;
To combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses;
To make right the master of might;
To promote peace and good-will on earth;
To safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy;
To consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE - I NAME

The name of this organization shall be Loveland Post No. 2000,
The American Legion, Department of Colorado.

ARTICLE - II OBJECTS AND PURPOSE

Section 1. The objects and purpose of this Post shall be to promote the principles and policies as set forth in the foregoing preamble, and the National and Department Constitution of The American Legion.

ARTICLE - III NATURE

Section 1. This organization shall be absolutely non-political and non-sectarian and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles not for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office of deferment.

Section 2. Rank does not exist in The American Legion; no member shall be addressed by their military or naval title in any meeting of this Post.

ARTICLE - IV MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility to membership in this Post shall be as prescribed by the National Constitution of The American Legion.

- Section 2. Charter Members will be defined as members that will have their names recorded onto the new Post Charter. These qualified veterans are new members to the Legion and those who chartered the post into service within the Department of Colorado. Founding Members will be defined as those members who are current members of other posts and transferred to the new post upon gaining its charter. These members were instrumental in the creation and founding of the post, but were not eligible to have their names put onto the official post charter because of their current membership status.
- Section 3. Application for membership shall be made on the prescribed membership form, it is accompanied by the necessary fees herein described. Proof of honorable military service (DD-214, etc.) will be required for all new membership processing. Applicants who are found ineligible for membership shall be so informed by the Adjutant who will notify the applicant, and they will have the dues and supporting documents, if any, returned.
- Section 4. Post 2000 will use electronic media, e-mail and website to promote and manage information and input between members and post officers as a means of communication. Members are highly encouraged to have, and maintain, their own personal e-mail address to facilitate communication on post matters between monthly meetings, but this is not required, as no qualified veteran will be denied membership for not meeting this standard.
- Section 5. Any member of this Post may be expelled for cause by a 2/3 vote of the membership in attendance at the next regular or special meeting of Post 2000. After charges are preferred under oath in writing, or prescribed by the Constitution and By Laws of the Department of Colorado Article XII, Section 1, and a fair trial had upon the same.
- Section 6. A member who has been expelled from this Post for any cause may be reinstated to membership by a 2/3 vote of the membership present at the next regular or special meeting of Post 2000.
- Section 7. Any member of this Post desiring to transfer to another Post shall upon application to the Adjutant, be furnished with a transfer card, provided all dues and assessments shall have been paid to date.
- Section 8. If accepted, the Adjutant shall notify the applicant, unless the applicant is present at the meeting, of acceptance into membership and instruct the applicant when to appear for initiation. If in attendance, the candidate may be initiated the same night. If rejected, the Adjutant shall notify the applicant, return the dues, and inform the applicant that they may be reconsidered in six (6) months from the date of rejection.
- Section 9. Requests for reinstatement must be accompanied by dues for the current membership year and the prior year's dues.

ARTICLE - V
OFFICERS

Section 1. The Administration of the Post's affairs, between meetings of the Post, and except as may be otherwise provided in the By-laws of the Post, shall be under the supervision of an Executive Committee which shall consist of the elective officers of the Post, and the immediate Past Post Commander, to be known as Executive Committee.

Section 2. The following shall be elected officers of this Post: Commander, Senior Vice-Commander, Junior Vice-Commander, Adjutant, Chaplain, Finance Officer, Service Officer, Historian, Judge Advocate and Sergeant at Arms.

Election of officers shall be as follows: The Commander shall appoint a Nominating Committee of not less than 3 to nominate at least one candidate for each office as set forth in section 1 of this Article. In addition to the nominations made by the Nominating Committee nominations may be made from the floor by any member of the post and nominations shall be open for two meetings including the annual election meeting.

Section 3. All non-contested elections will be conducted by acclamation. All contested elective officers shall be elected by secret ballot at the annual election. Said election shall be held at the last regular meeting of May.

Section 4. The duly elected officers shall be regularly installed in their respective offices at time and date approved by the membership, which shall be prior to the convening of the Department Convention following their election.

Section 5. The term of office for each elected office shall commence upon the adjournment of Department Convention next after their election and installation.

Section 6. A vacancy from an unexpired term shall be filled as followed:
(a) A vacancy in the office of Commander shall be filled by the advancement of the Senior Vice Commander.
(b) A vacancy in the office of Senior Vice Commander shall be filled by the advancement of the Junior Vice Commander.
(c) All other vacancies existing in any office shall be filled by nominations from the floor and election by the membership in attendance at the next regular or special meeting of Post 2000.

Section 7. All officers other than those designated in Section 1, Article 5 of this Constitution may be deemed essential by the Executive Committee or the Commander may be appointed by the Commander.

Section 8. Any time an officer elected or appointed to a post office that misses three consecutive regular meetings without just cause, the office shall be declared vacant by the Commander and they will be replaced by election or appointment to complete the year in that office.

ARTICLE – VI

COMMITTEES AND APPOINTMENTS

- Section 1. The Post Commander immediately upon taking office each year shall appoint such Standing Committees as deemed necessary by the Executive Committee to fully comply with the Department and the National mandates of The American Legion Program and to carry on successfully the Post activities.
- Section 2. The Commander shall also appoint any other Officer deemed necessary by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE – VII

LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITIES

- Section 1. Post 2000 shall incur, or cause to be incurred, no liability, nor obligation whatever which shall subject to liability any other association, subdivision, members of The American Legion, or other individuals, corporations or organizations.
- Section 2. No member, officer, or committee of Post 2000 shall have authority to bind it by contract or incur any obligation upon its behalf, except by express authority of the Post 2000 Commander. All contracts entered into on behalf of Post 2000 shall be in writing, reviewed by the Post Commander, executed by the Adjutant and evidenced by its corporate seal, if available, which shall be affixed by the Finance Officer and attested by his signature.
- Section 3. Notwithstanding any other provision herein or in the Post 2000 By-Laws, no officer, employee or representative of Post 2000 shall take any action or carry on any activity by or on behalf of the Post 2000 not permitted to be taken or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(19) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

ARTICLE – VIII

AMENDMENTS

- Section 1. Amendments to this Constitution and Bylaws shall be submitted in writing at the regular meeting of the Post and may be voted on at the next succeeding meeting and shall be adopted by a 2/3 vote of members present at said second meeting. Providing that notice of mail shall be given to all members in advance of the date when such amendment is to be voted on.

Section 2. This Constitution and Bylaws is adopted subject to the provisions of the National Constitution and Bylaws of The American Legion. Any provision of, or amendment to the National Constitution of The American Legion, which is in conflict with any provisions herein, shall be regarded as automatically repealing or modifying the provisions of this Constitution to the extent of such conflict.

Section 3. All changes to this Constitution and Bylaws whether proposed, administrative, pending, or finally approved shall be recorded contemporaneously herein and entered in the Change Log attached herein as Appendix "A". Appendix "A" is intended to track modification and/or amendment to the Constitution and Bylaws. All modifications to this Constitution and Bylaws, including, but not limited to, amendments and corrections, shall be recorded in Appendix A and maintained by the Adjutant. Entries shall include the date, the effected paragraph, the identity of the person or group initiating the change, and the status of the change. Change status shall be one of the following:

- (a) "APP" meaning approved by majority vote at The American Legion, Post 2000 Meeting of those members in attendance.
- (b) "DEF" meaning defeated or removed by majority vote at The American Legion, Post 2000 Meeting of those members in attendance.
- (c) "NVR" meaning no vote is required; typically used for correction of typographical errors.
- (d) "DIR" meaning the alteration was performed under the direction of The American Legion, Department of Colorado or National.
- (e) "PDG" meaning the alteration was performed as a draft to the document and is pending approval but a 2/3 vote by the members in attendance of a regular meeting.
